

Fourth Annual Summer Outing Tours Contest

THE KENILWORTH INN.

This hotel is located in the centre of a private park of 160 acres, thirty of which form a beautiful open lawn, the balance being laid out in romantic walks and drives, while the wild mountain country around Biltmore affords charming and picturesque drives, with excellent roads. The present is the Kenilworth's fourth season under the popular management of Mr. Edgar B. Moore, and is particularly noted for the excellence of its cuisine. The lucky ones to go here should have the vacation of their lives.

PINE BEACH.

A gem of architectural beauty and modern convenience, the Pine Beach Hotel occupies an admirable location on a point where, from the left, the Elizabeth, Nanamond and James Rivers flow into Chesapeake Bay, on the right, uniting to form the largest and safest harbor in the world—Hampton Roads—whose broad expanse of fifteen miles lays directly off the hotel site. Here was the scene of the renowned Monitor-Merrimack engagement and a third of a century later also the scene of the great review of the navy of the world—the one revolutionizing naval warfare and being the foundation of the monster fleet of armor-clads that constituted the other. Again in 1907, during the Jamestown Tercentennial on Hampton Roads, the same matchless body of water will be the rendezvous of the largest, costliest and most formidable assemblage of men-o-war ever planned by any nation or company of nations. Almost at the doors of the Pine Beach Hotel an army of artisans is constantly employed on the construction of the land features of that Exposition, which will commemorate the three hundredth anniversary of the first English settlement in America, on May 13, 1607.

The hotel is operated by the Pine Beach Hotel Corporation, of which Chas. H. Consolvo is president, under the personal management of Mr. W. C. Royer.

THE MECKLENBURG, CHASE CITY, VA.

There is no more delightful or healthful section in the broad confines of the Old Dominion State, Virginia, than that of which Chase City is the centre.

It is here that the Mecklenburg Hotel is located. The buildings, which are entirely new and modern, and which were completed only in the early autumn of 1902, stand upon an elevated plateau, 535 feet above sea level.

The Mecklenburg will be under the personal direction of the lessee, Mr. W. T. Hughes, whose wide experience will make this one of the most delightful resorts in the State. An excellent orchestra has been engaged, and special attention will be given to the amusement feature of the hotel.

BUCKROE BEACH.

Buckroe Beach is situated at the junction of the Chesapeake Bay and historic Hampton Roads. No resort on the coast is more ideally located for pleasure and health. The hotel, with accommodations for 250 guests, has all modern conveniences. Mr. Charles W. Rex, the resident manager of the Academy of Music, is the manager of Buckroe Beach, and will personally see to the comfort of his guests. A cozy little theatre is on the grounds, and, with an orchestra, bowling alleys, dancing pavilion, etc., will prove a perfect Mecca of amusements.

Convenient to site of Jamestown Exposition. Fishing boats furnished free of charge to guests of the hotel. The bathing beach the finest on the coast. A delightful surf, an even temperature and the entire absence of all undertow make bathing here a delight and a luxury long to be remembered.

MOUNTAIN LAKE HOTEL, VA.

Rockbound, and hidden by the mountains sombre, there lies a lake whose waters, locked in slumber, seem, like the princess of our childhood story, charmed by a spell to sleep through ages hoary.

Near the margin, and overlooking this picturesque lake of the mountains, is the hotel, a large and commodious building, with two broad piazzas, one above the other, extending around its entire front, a distance of over four hundred feet, making a lovely promenade. There are also several attractive cottages near the hotel, all of which are well furnished and are nicely suited to families.

The hotel table will be supplied with the best and most wholesome food the market affords, which will be prepared by the best service that can be obtained in the culinary department. The hotel has its dairy, from which fresh, pure milk and cream can always be obtained, and fresh vegetables are secured daily from the valley below. The hotel is under the management of Mr. T. G. Porterfield, Mountain Lake, Va.

Sixty Ladies Will Be Our Guests this Summer.

Thirty Richmond Ladies.

Thirty Ladies residing outside the City.

2 Prizes de Luxe. 16 First Prizes. 2 Consolation Prizes.

Contest begins To-Day and closes
Saturday, July 21st.

Forty Young Ladies and Twenty Chaperones.

SEASIDE AND MOUNTAIN RESORTS.

Vote for Young Ladies in Pairs, Each Party to Select its Own Chaperone.

This is the fourth annual Times-Dispatch Summer Outing Tours Contest. The same general plan followed in the three preceding contests will govern this season's contest, with only one or two changes, which are made clear in the plan outlined below.

Each successful contestant will be furnished with transportation and an order on one of the hotels mentioned on this page for a week's board and lodging. The contest begins to-day and closes at 6 o'clock on the night of Saturday, July 21st, and is open as it was last year, to any lady in the States of Virginia, North Carolina or West Virginia, in fact anywhere reached by the Times-Dispatch, who is in no way connected with the Times-Dispatch and who contributes in part or in whole to her own support.

The principal point of difference in the contest this year will be that there will in reality be two distinct contests.

One for ladies resident in RICHMOND.

One for ladies resident outside RICHMOND.

The votes in each case will be of equal value, and can be gotten anywhere, from anyone.

The ladies getting the highest number of votes get first choice, and so on until the ninth trip is chosen; then the tenth or Consolation Prize will go to the lucky party whose names are drawn out of the hat which will hold all those at this last prize.

Look out for innovations all through the fine morning and find a big black "X" in the middle of the daily coupon; this will mean that the coupon is worth 10 votes; one day it will be made "XX," and worth 100 votes, so don't take any chances, but keep your eyes open for SUMMER OUTING."

Voting Certificates.

Besides the coupons which will appear in each issue of The Times-Dispatch from now until July 21st, each one of which is good for two votes, The Times-Dispatch will issue from the main office, 315 East Main Street, certificates of votes in various denominations, which will be counted as coupons based on the following plan: For all money paid in for votes to The Times-Dispatch, either in or out of the city, a certificate will be issued for as many votes as there are cents in the price of the subscription.

New Subscribers.

For all money paid in for new subscriptions, THREE VOTES will be counted for each one cent of the amount paid. Those who receive certificates by sending in subscriptions, either in or out of Richmond, will not only receive the number of votes to which they are entitled by the certificate, but will have the privilege of cutting the coupons from the papers for which the certificates were issued, thereby gaining an additional number of votes.

A subscription received for any person who is already on our mailing list or is being served regularly by carrier, is a RENEWAL, and is entitled to ONE VOTE FOR EACH ONE CENT paid on an extension or renewal of the present subscription.

A coupon cut from the paper is worth TWO VOTES. A NEW SUBSCRIPTION is any subscription received for a person whose name is not on the mailing list or on the carrier service books at the time subscription is received, and a NEW SUBSCRIPTION is entitled to THREE VOTES for each one cent paid for the subscription.

It will readily be seen that the quickest and surest method of obtaining votes is to secure at once NEW subscribers.

Special Prizes.

Through the generous offers made by the companies mentioned below The Times-Dispatch is enabled to add the features named in the letters that follow. Each lady obtaining one of the trips will be entitled to these additional prizes:

Baggage Transfer.

Richmond, Va., May 29, 1906.

The Times-Dispatch, City: As a compliment to the successful contestants in the Tee-Dee Outing Contest, we propose to transfer the baggage of each party from their residences to the train, and on their return from the train to their residences.

Accident Insurance.

Richmond, Va., May 28, 1906.

The Times-Dispatch, City: Gentlemen—As has been our yearly custom since your popular "T-D" outing contests have been in vogue, we beg to offer this year to each of the successful contestants an accident policy of $500.00 in the Standard Life and Accident Insurance Company, of Detroit, Mich., for a period from the time of leaving this city to time of return.

Any Lady, Anywhere.

Richmond, Va., May 29, 1906.

No votes will be issued on account of any subscriptions made prior to this date, either in or out of Richmond. Votes will only be issued on subscriptions made from this date and received at this office not later than 6 P. M., July 21st, and only then when the votes are requested at the time the order is sent. This rule will be followed invariably.

Fire Insurance.

Richmond, Va., May 29, 1906.

The Virginia State Insurance Company propose to furnish fire insurance, protection for the baggage and wearing apparel carried by the successful parties on their Tee-Dee trips, such protection to be for the amount of the value of each individual's property, and to cover against destruction by fire while on any train, steamerboat or in any hotel during the trip.

The limit of value to be $500 for each party. We will issue a regular policy on advices showing the names of the parties selected for the trips.

Yours very truly, ROBT. LECKY, Jr., Vice-Pres. and Secy.

Any Lady, Anywhere.

This contest is not confined to Richmond. Any lady, who is not barred by the requirements of the contest, living at any point in the State of Virginia, may compete for one of the trips.

The voting certificate plan will make it possible for large numbers of votes to be secured by any one who will give a little time to securing renewal and new subscriptions. Canvass among your friends and get them to either extend their present subscriptions and give you the votes called for under the head of "renewals" or, if they are not taking The Times-Dispatch, get them to subscribe for one month or more, and so get three votes for each one cent paid.

In every case the money must be sent with the order, and a request made for the votes in the same letter. All subscriptions sent in on account of the Outing Tours must be addressed

MT. ELLIOTT SPRINGS HOTEL, AUGUSTA COUNTY, VA.

The view is taken from the railway station, the star showing Elliott's Knob rising 4,750 feet above sea level, frequent trips are made to the Knobs by parties from the hotel. There is no summer resort in the mountains of Virginia surpassing Mt. Elliott Springs for easy access, pure air, splendid views and healthy location. The temperature at this point is cooler than at any other place in Virginia. Within forty minutes' ride of the city of Staunton, and within a few hours' ride of all eastern cities. Elevation at hotel, 2,350 feet. Amusements are croquet, tennis, bowling alley and dancing. The ballroom and the double-tracked bowling alley are in separate buildings, apart from the hotel and cottages which gives quiet to those seeking perfect rest, and giving to those seeking pleasure all that could be desired. The hotel has its own orchestra, hot and cold healing baths, sanitary plumbing, lighted by acetylene gas, and four mails daily, the post office being in the hotel.

TOXAWAY INN

On Lake Toxaway, the South's newest all-the-year tourist resort, is the largest and most modern of all the hotels of the Toxaway System, and is one of the most attractive and best equipped resort hotels in the South.

Lake Toxaway has a shore margin of fifteen miles, and to be appreciated must be seen. Think of a sparkling sheet of water of such great size 3,100 feet above sea level, in a setting of gigantic mountain peaks, and abounding with speckled and rainbow trout!

The lake is equipped with a large and well-filled flotilla of row boats and power launches, and comfort in every detail has been studied out for the benefit of guests.

The Toxaway is one of a string of hotels placed in the heart of this most beautiful Sapphire Country of North Carolina. Those who are lucky enough to win a vacation at Toxaway will be allowed to choose any one of the hotels under the care of Manager Burrows for the Toxaway Hotel System, at which to spend the allotted week.

OCEAN VIEW HOTEL, OCEAN VIEW, VA.

The Ocean View Hotel is known far and wide. Its situation on Chesapeake Bay, only about nine miles from Norfolk, is ideal. It is often referred to as the "Atlantic City of the South." The resort itself offers numerous attractions, the bathing being a prominent feature. An excellent band and orchestra give concerts every afternoon, and the orchestra furnishes music at night in the dancing pavilion.

Mr. Charles H. Consolvo is the manager, and his long experience fits him to cater in first-class style to every wish of the patrons of the hotel.

There is always something doing in the way of entertainment at Ocean View. The Casino, situated at the View, is one of the most complete summer theatres in the United States. It is conducted by the Wells Amusement Company, and is under the personal direction of Manager Otto Wells. The Tee-Dee visitors are given the entrance to all amusements free of cost by courtesy of the Wells Amusement Company.

GREENWOOD HOUSE.

Perhaps there cannot be found a more ideal place for rest and quiet enjoyment than Greenwood. Situated as it is among the wooded hills and fertile valleys in that happy region which lies above the heat of the lowlands and below the fogs of the highlands, there are few places more blest. Being 1,400 feet above sea level, Greenwood suffers little from hot days, and an uncomfortable night is a thing unknown. The grounds of the Greenwood House cover many acres, dotted over with fine old trees, beneath the shade of which one soon forgets the heat and dust of the city.

Under the direct management of Mr. Howard Williams, those who are looking for rest and quietness, after the turmoil of a busy life, will find what they desire, and return refreshed anew, ready for the battle of life.

WACHAPREAGUE, VA.

Wachapreague is on the Eastern Shore of Virginia, and the hotel is one of the most comfortable and homelike to be found anywhere. Excellent surf bathing, launches, sail and row boats in plenty. Finest sort of fishing, inland and sea. Shady lawn, pleasant walks and drives. Free excursions to Cedar Island; in fact, everything that goes to supply rest and recreation are to be had at this splendid resort, along with many natural advantages not to be offered by more pretentious places. This hotel was in the Tee-Dee contest last year, and spoken of in the very highest terms by our guests. Wachapreague is under the management of Mr. Ira F. Burton.
